

ESB096 No New Wires Technologies - A Future Brighter Than the Past for Electronics Systems Contractors

No new wire technologies can support distribution of audio, video, IP networking, security and home control functions. This webinar will cover using existing wire for new purposes, as well as, using wireless / RF technologies. The disruption generated by these devices has the potential to create huge opportunities for the residential electronics systems contractor.

View webinar here.