

ESBW226 Managing External Resources

This course explores the effective methods for controlling and managing inventory as well as managing the purchasing process. Participants will gain tips on how to select and manage vendors and subcontractors, as well as other outsourced resources, such as Human Resources (HR) functions, etc.

Upon completion of this course, participants should be able to:

- List techniques for managing inventory
- List techniques for controlling inventory
- Describe effective methods for managing their purchasing process
- Select appropriate vendors and subcontractors
- Effectively manage vendor selection
- Effectively manage outsourced resources

Recommended prerequisites: ESB121, ESB223, ESB224